

HKU - Common Purpose Leadership Development Programme

Kuala Lumpur June 2026

The University of Hong Kong Leadership Development Programme is designed to provide you with the skills, experiences, and global perspectives needed for your future success.

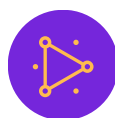

During the programme you will take part in:

- A 3-week online Cultural Intelligence Accelerator designed to help you prepare for your time abroad
- A 4-day workshop in Kuala Lumpur designed to develop key leadership skills
- A 3 week organizational attachment, where you will work with peers on a workplace project
- An online reflection workshop to consolidate and articulate your learning

Whilst in Kuala Lumpur you will:

- Take part in immersive visits to organizations to learn more about the skills that have helped leaders
- Engage with leaders and have the opportunity to ask them questions and learn about their experiences
- Immerse yourself in the local culture
- Collaborate with peers from your university

What's in it for you:

Build confidence and resilience: By immersing yourself in a new and unfamiliar environment, you will develop confidence and adaptability that will be essential for future success

Develop key employability skills: By undertaking immersive experiences, facilitated workshops and a project-based organizational attachment, you will develop skills that will give you a distinct advantage in an interconnected world

Grow your network: Create lasting relationships with peers from your university as well as leaders from another city

Sharpen your Cultural Intelligence: Work with difference, in new and unfamiliar contexts, to sharpen your Cultural Intelligence (CQ)
